

Estudio Billboard con Alejandra Guzmán

Premiere: Tuesday, September 15 – 10P/9P Central

Encore: Sunday, September 20 – 8p/7p Central

Alejandra Guzmán, the "Queen of Rock," is a Latin Grammy Award–winning singer, writer and actress. Over her twenty-year career she has had multi-platinum albums and numerous hits in her native Mexico, the US, and throughout Latin America. She is known for her husky voice that adds texture to her often introspective and philosophical songs, which include Eternamente Bella, Hacer El Amor Con Otro, Volverte a Amar, and Hasta al Final. With her humor, boundless energy and larger-than-life personality, “La Guzman” is a true survivor - of scandals, struggles with drugs and alcohol, and most recently a bout with cancer.

In this funny and emotional interview with Leila Cobo, Alejandra Guzman talks about her stormy romantic past, and how she has used that in her music. She shares stories of growing up as the daughter of famous performers, and of her own daughter – the inspiration for one of her recent songs. And she performs a number of her hits- Hacer el Amor con Otro, Necesito Amarme, Soy Sólo un Secreto, Hasta al Final, and the title song from her new album, Centro.
